

Biblical Feasts and Holy Days

Weekly Holy Day

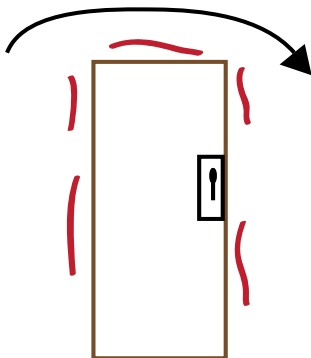

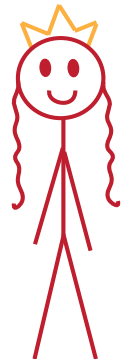

Sabbath: The Sabbath is a weekly celebration to remember Creation and a time of rest for the people of God.

Draw and have students draw: A circle that is half moon and half sun (symbol for day), with the purple God triangle over it.

Spring Holy Days

Purim: Purim is a two-day observance to remember how God used Esther to save the Jews of Persia from certain death.

Draw and have students draw: Queen Esther.

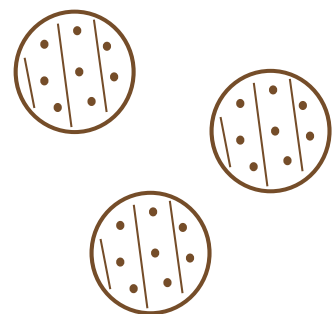

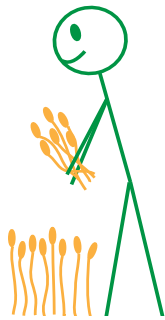

Passover: The Passover is a one-day observance and a time to remember when the angel of death killed the firstborn of Egypt but passed over those who had the blood of the lamb on their doorposts and lintels.

Draw and have students draw: A door with blood on the door posts and lintel. An arrow passing over the door.

Feast of Unleavened Bread: The Feast of Unleavened Bread is a seven-day observance beginning the day after Passover. Is a time to remember that the Lord quickly delivered the children of Israel out of bondage in Egypt. The children of Israel left so quickly their bread did not have time to leaven.

Draw and have students draw: Unleavened bread which is pierced and striped.

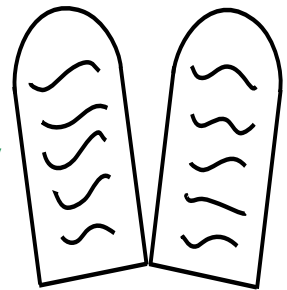

Feast of First Fruits: The Feast of First Fruits is observed on the first day after the first Sabbath after Passover. This is a time to remember how the Lord delivered the children of Israel out of bondage and gave them the Promised Land, which was a land that flowed with milk and honey.

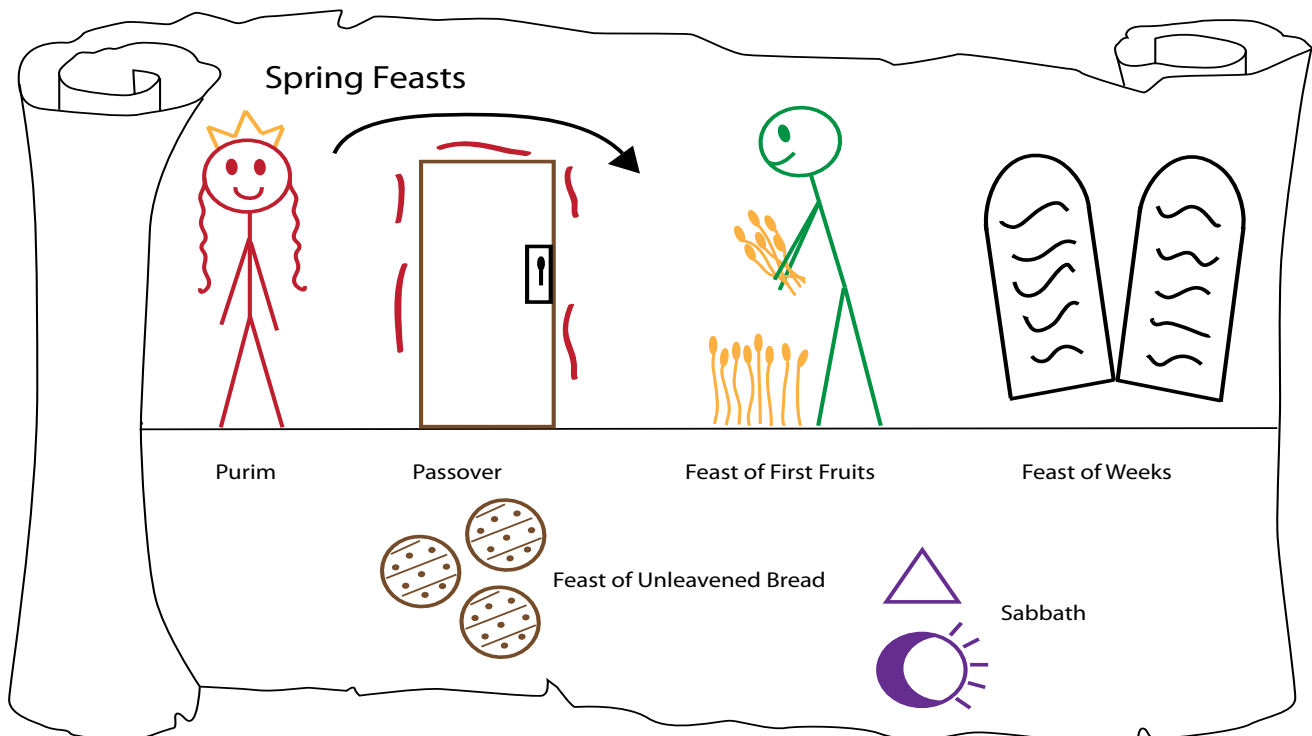

Draw and have students draw: A man gathering barley.

Feast of Weeks: The Feast of Weeks is a one-day observance to remember how the children of Israel were once slaves in Egypt. Also on this day, the Holy Spirit was also given to the church, to those who had been released from their slavery to sin. Traditionally, it is believed the Ten Commandments were given on this day.

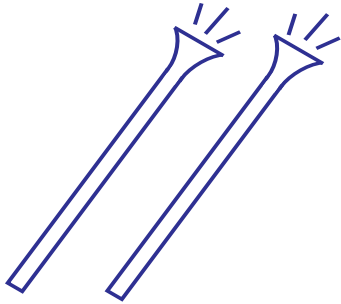

Draw and have students draw: Two tablets or the Ten Commandments.
